

SWP Joins the LBMA: Setting New Standards in Precious Metals Security and Integrity

What it means for Clients of SWP

We're very pleased to share that Strategic Wealth Preservation (SWP) is now an affiliate member of the esteemed London Bullion Market Association (LBMA). This membership aligns SWP with the global benchmark for excellence, transparency, and trust in precious metals.

As an LBMA affiliate member, we're now part of the association that oversees the Good Delivery List for gold and silver, the globally recognized standard for quality in bullion. This affiliation reflects our commitment to upholding the highest quality standards and ensuring our clients' precious metals meet the stringent criteria of LBMA Good Delivery Bars. This trusted standard assures authenticity, purity, and quality, offering peace of mind when it comes to stored assets.

In addition to aligning with the Good Delivery standards, we're also committed to adhering to the Global Precious Metals Code, which governs market practices to ensure integrity, fairness, and transparency across the precious metals industry. Our LBMA membership reinforces our dedication to ethical conduct and best practices, strengthening our position as a trusted partner in secure storage solutions.

What This Means for You:
With LBMA's backing, SWP can offer unparalleled assurance of quality, security, and compliance, adding tangible value to the storage solutions we provide. As we continue to expand our services in the offshore jurisdiction of the Cayman Islands, we're excited to bring LBMA's standards to every level of our offerings.
